

Quality assurance, disputes and expert opinions

---

The expertise of the associates at Vista Analysis is regularly used in media, public committees and in legal processes. We have thorough knowledge of the reality in which our expert opinions are used, and we have the professional background needed to offer consistent analytical reasoning about complicated subjects. Our contributions include environment and waste management, transportation, energy, competition and other subjects within business economics.